

Seeds Planted in '67 for S.S.F.'s 'Golden Age'

By DON GRIERSON

Though new building and industrial development continued at a rapid pace in South San Francisco during 1967, the big news dealt more with things to come than with those immediately realized.

As the year ended, plans were either approved or pending for the city's first high-rise office building, an apartment complex more than twice the size of any existing multi-unit development in the city, three new subdivisions, a shopping center and a new city park.

"In 1967, the seeds were planted for what appears to be a golden age for South San Francisco," City Manager Eugene Aiello said.

With the proposed $1.5 million Guy F. Atkinson Co., office tower and the Club View Apartments development, 1968 promises to be a record construction year for the city, Aiello said.

During 1967, building permits were issued for construction totalling $9,561,283, about $500,000 over last year's total. This figure includes permits for three new industrial buildings with a combined evaluation of $1.5 million.

Progress continued on the Willow Gardens, Stonegate Ridge, Westborough and West Park subdivisions, and a use permit was approved for the 10-acre Westborough Square Shopping Center.

City officials postponed action on a use permit for another large project, the proposed $2 million Roman Catholic church-school complex in Westborough, until March, 1968.

A sculptured tower overlooking the Cabot, Cabot and Forbes

Industrial Park was dedicated during 1967, adding to the impressive facilities rising on the city's bayfront.

In other areas, 1967 brought the first anniversary of the West Orange Library dedication, and more than 25,000 new books were added to the city collection, along with numerous paintings and film strips.

The recreation department provided year-around service to all areas of the city, and presented a number of concerts, youth carnivals and other civic activities.

Three new patrolmen and one police dog were added to the city's police force during the year, and the fire department ordered a new 1,500-gallon pumper and added three men to the staff.

The public works department installed new traffic signals at two intersections, and repaired or improved 10 miles of city streets. Luminescent traffic buttons were also installed on many city streets as a safety measure.

The Chamber of Commerce conducted a survey of employees in the city's industrial district during 1967, to determine feasibility of implementing bus service to the area, and the service will "probably be instituted sometime next year," according to C of C president Bill Borba.

The chamber also continued work on downtown redevelopment plans, and continued to increase its membership.

Probably the happiest aspect of the year's progress, from the viewpoint of the city's residents, was the fact that it was brought about without an increase in taxes.

Mayor Patrick Ahern and the council voted to retain the city's .91 tax rate, and South San Francisco now boasts the lowest composite rate in the county.

Within the next two years, the city will complete the 10-acre park and a fire station in Westborough, double the size of the police station, build an indoor swimming pool and construct a number of new four-lane streets.

The long-awaited Junipero Serra Boulevard-Clay Avenue pedestrian overpass, a joint project between the city, the state and the South San Francisco Unified School District, is also scheduled for completion during 1968.

Five Flee Flames

A five-year-old girl playing with matches in her bedroom started a fire Thursday afternoon that sent Mrs. Elizabeth Prado and four children fleeing from their flaming split-level home at 252 Longford Drive, according to South San Francisco Firemen.

No one was seriously injured, although the child received slight burns of the fingertips, a fire department spokesman said.

The blaze swept through the girl's rear bedroom into the hall and the bathroom and partially into the living room where paint on walls was blistered.

One fire official said he could see flames coming from the rear bedroom window as fire units arrived shortly before 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. Prado and her four youngsters already had left the house, apparently having had no difficulty in making their way through the dense, choking smoke.

One other Prado child was not at home. The children's ages run from four to nine years, it was reported.

Firemen have estimated the blaze did about $7,000 in damage to the interior of the structure, in addition to an estimated loss of $1,000 in contents, particularly in the bedroom.

The industrial hotel in South San Francisco was evacuated about 3:21 a.m. Friday as smoke from a burning bed in one of the rooms filled the entire hotel.

South San Francisco firemen said Mike Tolosko of room 49 in the hotel, at 505 Cypress, apparently had left his electric blanket on for about three days.

It overheated and a fire started at the foot of Tolosko's bed.

The thick, acrid smoke was too much even for firemen. They had to enter the hotel wearing self-contained masks and other occupants were urged to leave the building.

"It took a long time to get the smoke out," a department spokesman said.

Tolosko, suffered a slight burn on his right arm, the fireman said.

Progress Report On Family Life

Family life education in the South San Francisco Unified School District took another great step forward last week with a progress report and summary presented to the Board of Trustees by Dr. Paul Nielsen, superintendent.

The report included details of implementation of activities to date, plus projected plans for in-service training for January, and announcements of a number of pilot classes for students in all the secondary schools of the district for the spring semester starting January 29, 1968.

After workshops on the new elementary teachers' resource guide were held, family life education classwork in the elementary schools of the district started early in the fall semester. The elementary and secondary guides were developed by committees of teachers and administrators working co-operatively for the past two years under the supervision of the County Office personnel. The South San Francisco Unified School District was well represented on these committees.

The workshops in general will include special consultants coming to the district to discuss with the teachers various phases of the program.

On January 3, Dr. and Mrs. David Treat will make a presentation on ways and means of introducing the facts of human reproduction to a class. Dr. Treat is Family Education Consultant for the County Health Department and San Jose Unified School District.

All teachers and administrators are invited to the lecture which will be held from 3 to 4:30 p.m., in the Board Room at 398 B Street.

January 10, Jack Snodgrass, family life consultant for the Palo Alto Unified School District, will meet with district personnel to describe how the family life program has been implemented in Palo Alto. His presentation will include films and slides illustrating classroom techniques. A question and answer period will follow. The meeting will be from 1 to 3:30 p.m., in the Board Room at 398 B Street. Pilot teachers will attend on a released-time basis.

January 17 will be an all-day family life education workshop for secondary school teachers. Teachers involved in starting pilot programs this spring will attend. The day's work will include reports and discussions by district personnel close to the evolution of family life education. District audio-visual materials will be previewed, and the teachers will be involved in co-ordinating content and grade level factors. Discussions of lesson planning and use of available district and county materials will be emphasized. Other phases, such as visits to other districts, bibliography lists, and how to lead discussion groups will be added as the institute goes forward.

CITIZENS' PLANNING COMMITTEE REPORT

Culture Ideas In Daly City

By WILL E. THOMAS

An all-purpose auditorium in the new Daly City Hall area is needed if the community hopes to achieve "truly dimensional" cultural development.

This, the need for more libraries and a tourist-convention development bureau, are among critical areas of concern to the seven-man subcommittee that was a part of the Daly City General Plan Citizens' Committee.

The subcommittee — made up of Ray Milton, Mona Baker, Phil Capitolo, Bob Hyde, Winona Kendrick, Albert Teglia and Ed Tomasello — dealt with schools, libraries, and cultural facilities for its involvement in the citizens' project.

Stressing the urgent need for an all-purpose auditorium, the unit noted, "Such an auditorium could bring musical and theatrical artistry to this area and make it, in this respect, independent of its larger neighbors."

The group has recommended an auditorium that could house medium-sized crowds so that it might "justify its existence and add to our city identification by serving local needs."

Along the same lines, the subcommittee suggested construction of a much larger facility near the Cow Palace to "meet a convention complex need."

Expansion of the existing War Memorial Center is needed, the subcommittee asserted, "to ease pressure that now exists."

The building serves as a youth and community center building which is vitally needed in the community, the group explained; "however, we feel that future multi-purpose centers should be built in conjunction with intermediate and high schools," using joint city-school financing.

The committee feels that more libraries are "immediately needed."

The citizens also have suggested that school libraries remain open for certain nighttime hours.

Both elementary and high school libraries, the sub-unit declared, should be open beyond school hours, and a more generous budget for the supply of books, tapes and records should be provided.

"There is obvious need for the expansion of existing libraries in the city system," the report stated. It suggested future libraries be located within a "reasonable walking distance of all Daly City residents."

Additionally, the study group urged a serious study of a joint city and high school library at the new Serramonte High School.

On schools, the subcommittee sees a need for another intermediate school north of Colma School and in the St. Francis Heights area.

The subcommittee proposed expansion of the Cow Palace into a "first-line" convention center — a complex that could include landscaping of the entire area around a central theme structure, and acquisition of land area available "when Midway Village is abandoned by the county."

Formation of another committee was recommended to draft a proposal suggesting location of a new University of California campus in the Daly City or Crocker Hills area.

The Cause Is Not Yet Determined

A Christmas fire did about $55,000 worth of damage to three Daly City homes Sunday morning. The blaze was termed one of the worst in years by a spokesman for the Daly City fire department.

According to Battalion Chief Mel Hanson, the fire began in the basement of the two-story home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson at 49 Rice Street. The blaze, whose origin is still undetermined today, spread quickly to homes on either side of the Wilson residence. The alarm came in at 7:45 a.m.

The homes of Richard Garriety, 53 Rice, and Mrs. Al Mattegoda, 45 Rice, became involved in the fire, flames from which shot 50 to 60 feet into the air, according to Chief Hanson.

Hanson added that, "You could see the flames for miles around. It was really a bad fire."

No one was injured in the blaze, which was fought by 30 Daly City firemen and by five engine companies from San Francisco.

According to Hanson, the Wilson's four young grandchildren (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

Wayward Cap Returns

MISSING CAP CAPER — A "mysterious" visitor (possibly dressed in a red suit and riding a sleigh?) has returned that rare radiator cap stolen 15 days ago from a 1930 Willys-Knight coupe while the vehicle was parked in front of the Elmer Venturini home at 61 Creston Drive, Daly City. In a story published in The Post afterward, Richard Given, owner of the vintage car and brother of Mrs. Venturini (shown holding the cap in front of the mailbox) said "All I want for Christmas is my missing radiator cap — no questions asked." There are only two such cars known to be in running condition in the country and parts are extremely, if not impossible, to obtain, according to Given. Mrs. Venturini said she called her brother last week in San Diego, where he is undergoing recruit training for the Navy, to tell him the good news. (Post Photo.)

Cable Car Crash Takes Second Life

David Taylor, 3, 1212 Crespi Drive, Pacifica, has become the second person to die as a result of the fiery cable car crash December 3 in San Francisco which injured 43 individuals.

The boy died Saturday at Letterman Hospital in San Francisco of burns. He was riding the cable car with five members of his family when it smashed into an auto at Hyde and Bay Streets.

Coast Boy, Daly City Girl, Winners

were staying with them during the holidays and were asleep at the time of the alarm.

All of them managed to get out of the burning home in time. The four youngsters walked out of the residence as the flames licked at their Christmas tree and began destroying their presents. Neighbors on Rice Street reported they heard an explosion rock the area at the outset of the fire, but Hanson said that his investigators have not yet found the cause of it.

The blaze spread particularly fast from the Wilson home to Mrs. Matteoda's residence because of a light well between the two structures. Hanson said that the flames raced up the light well and seemed to form a "chimney" effect as sparks and smoke shot high into the early morning air.

Garrity, who lives alone at 35 Rice, had recently returned from a hospital, Hanson said, and was taken back to the facility on the advice of his doctor. Garrity, an elderly man, has a cast on much of his upper body and it was felt that he should be cared for at the hospital, Hanson stated.

Firemen fought the blaze for several hours and were finally sent back to their stations at about 11:30 a.m.

A breakdown of the damages includes:

$25,000 to the Wilson home itself and about $7,000 to its contents; damage was extensive throughout the home with the basement and living areas totally ruined; a car valued at $1,600 was demolished in the garage; $7,500 to the Garrity residence and $1,500 to its contents; major damage occurred to the connecting walls with the Wilson home; water damage and blistered paint along with smoke damage also contributed to Garrity's loss.

$12,000 to Mrs. Matteoda's home and about $2,000 to its contents; smoke damage throughout her home; flames curled into her kitchen and dining area, destroying both areas.

DALY CITY YOUTH HONORED—Thomas Kirkpatrick (left) proudly displays plaque presented him by Governor Reagan recently for bravery. Former Daly City Mayor Albert Polonsky (now city attorney) nominated young Thomas for a national award after the youth braved rough seas to rescue a drowning boy off Thornton Beach in 1966 aided by James Meyer of 487 C Street, Colma. As a result of Polonsky's nomination, Thomas was given the Young American's Award by the governor. In a letter to attorney Polonsky, Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew G. Kirkpatrick, of 7 Partridge Lane, expressed thanks "for the interest you have shown in the youth of our community..." (Post Photo)

Winners (as in previous years) were selected for ideas, thought and sincerity rather than for English, spelling or handwriting. A total of $200 in merchandise orders was awarded the winners.

Chosen for the $15 merchandise prizes from the hundreds of contestants on the subject, "My Best Christmas," were: Mike Haynie, age 9, 441 Magnolia; Half Moon Bay, and Antoinette Imholz, age 10, 77 Rockford Way, Daly City.

Winner of the grand prize in the boys' division, Mike wrote: "My best Christmas was when I was 5 years old. I lived in Arizona close to the Mexican border. There was a small Mexican town called Agua Preta on the outskirts of the town I lived in. There were many poor people living there so my family and I fixed up our toys to give to them. Along with the toys we put in clothes, shoes, and food.

"On Christmas Eve we took these things to two of the poor families. It was very thrilling to see how happy and excited they were.

"This taught me that Christmas could be just as fun giving as getting."

The girl grand prize winner, Antoinette, is 10 years old and is in the fifth grade at the Franklin D. Roosevelt Grammar School. She has one brother 14. She loves animals and has pet rabbits. She is associated with

S.S.F. Could Lose Major Firm

By DON GRIERSON

The proposed $1.5 million expansion of the Guy F. Atkinson Co., office headquarters building in South San Francisco likely will be built somewhere else if a use permit for the project is not approved by the end of next month, a company spokesman has indicated.

Thomas J. Henderson, general manager for building and properties for the Atkinson firm, said the company's expansion plans call for completion of the new office facilities by September, 1969.

"If we are not ready to go by the end of next month, it will be impossible to meet our time schedule with the South San Francisco plan," Henderson said.

He indicated the firm has several alternate plans, but would prefer to locate in South San Francisco, "where we have our present world headquarters."

Planning commissioners postponed action on a use permit for the 10-story addition last week after three representatives from homeowners groups protested the planned building.

The homeowners, residents of the Sign Hill area, contend the 143-foot tall building would block their view "and set an undesirable precedent in our city."

The city's building code limits structures to 65 feet in height. However, there have been a number of exceptions to the regulation in the past, and taller buildings are allowable through the use permit procedures, according to City Planner Daniel Pass.

In addition to the opposition from homeowners, the proposed high-rise building has been opposed by Parks and Recreation Superintendent Robert Maxey and landscape consultant John Hoffman.

Maxey and Hoffman are opposed to the building as proposed "because it would be detrimental to plant life in Orange Memorial Park."

The park is located directly across Orange Avenue from the 26-acre Atkinson site, and Maxey and Hoffman maintain the new building would cast a shadow over much of the park.

However, Henderson said this week that most of the park area which would be shaded by the building is lawn, and "the problem has been exaggerated."

Another hearing before the planning commission is scheduled January 8, and indications are that the commissioners will approve the requested use permit.

However, planning commission decisions are not necessarily final in South San Francisco, and petitioners have the right to appeal such decisions to the city council.

Conceivably, unless the matter is given special consideration, the appeal process could delay the use permit until the company is forced to choose an alternate location.

The bride is the former Joyce Lee Turnbough, daughter of Mrs. James R. Turnbough and the late Mr. Turnbough. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Amsden Sr.

Diana Ruiz was the honor attendant for Joyce with Carol Boyd and Linda Carson as bridesmaids. Charlene Turnbough served as junior bridesmaid with Diana Turnbough and Debbie Worel as candle-lighters.

Ronald Raymond stood with James as best man, and Joseph Guild and Robert Kleffman seated the guests.

After a reception in the church hall, the couple left for a wedding trip to Cleveland, Ohio. They will live in San Bruno.

The bride attended Capuchino High School, the College of San Mateo and San Francisco State College. She has a sister, Janet Turnbough. Her husband is a Navy veteran and the brother of Mrs. Jack Kunz, Annette Amsden, Jeffrey, Jerome and Jason Amsden.

BRUNCH FRUIT

Nice for brunch: fresh fruit all prepared for easy eating. But keep the fruit good-size pieces — each piece just enough for two bites!

Westmoor Has Drive For Funds

Gaily wrapped in gold and silver foil or red Santa tissue paper and topped with gigantic red and green bows numerous boxes circulated around Westmoor High, as students recently-launched their fund-raising project for 1967-68.

Keeping in mind a goal of $600, Westmoor High School students have begun plans for raising money to be contributed to the Easter Seal Rehabilitation and Research Center of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults of San Mateo County.

The Westmoor High Executive Board chose a contribution to the Center as this year's project and set the $600 goal.

Under the direction of project chairman Kathy Knowlton, student body treasurer, committees were formed and plans include volunteer work on a morning dance to raise funds have begun.

Among services of the Center are speech and hearing, physical therapy, re-employment counseling and rehabilitation work. Over 6,000 individuals have availed themselves of the Center's services during the past year. The Center has also offered occupational training to 465 trainees and, as a result, placed 95 people in productive jobs.

The Easter Seal Rehabilitation and Research Center is a non-profit organization whose work is financed through the distribution of Easter Seals, contributions, memberships and therapy fees. The $602 to be donated by Westmoor students will go to buy equipment for the Center.

"The happiness on the faces of these unfortunate people," stated chairman Kathy, "is the result of immeasurable courage, time, skills of therapists, doctors, and vocational counselors, and, most important, donations."

Sisterhood At Judea Sets Party

The Sisterhood of Temple Judea, on Brotherhood Way, will sponsor a Card Party Luncheon on January 16 at 11:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. An afternoon of cards and a luncheon are included for a donation of $2.

The newly formed "Miniskirts — Friends of Temple Judea" will hold its first in a series of monthly dances for Single Adults, (aged 21-40) of the Bay Area.

The dance will be held January 6 at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

The music of Dick Herman's Orchestra will be featured.

Franklin Muller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Muller, of Daly City, will be Bar Mitzvah, December 29 at 8:30 p.m.

MRS. ALBERT FAMB-RINI will chairman the 14th annual fashion show and luncheon to be presented by the Westlake Catholic Women February 3 in the Grand Ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel. Fashions will be by H. Liebes and proceeds will benefit Our Lady of Mercy Building Fund.

Quits S.S.F. Chamber

Neil Whitelaw, South San Francisco's third chamber of commerce manager this year, has resigned from the post, effective January 1.

Whitelaw, a former assistant to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce manager, assumed the post last July after Frank Faribanks resigned. Fairbanks replaced Leonard McLeod, who managed the chamber's affairs on a part-time basis for several years.

C of C President William Borba said today he has "no comment" on Whitelaw's resignation, and added the chamber will begin screen applicants to fill the post next month.

Non-Holiday Dishes

Good morning, good cooks. We may have finished in a full gallop, but we DID finish. The tree was beautiful, the presents all wrapped and in the right place at the right time, and some of the children's toys remained unbroken until Christmas night.

A wondrous day! I know your dinner was delightful and you received praise on your cuisine. But now I'll bet you are tired of fancy cooking and don't want to see turkey or ham for a long time. Neither do I. So let's talk about some dishes that use ground meat, stew meat and even that old standby tuna.

This first dish is easy to make and when served with rice makes a tasty and tempting meal.

CHINESE STEW

- 2 lbs. beef chuck, cubed
- 1 teas. salt
- 1 1/2 Tablespoons flour
- 2 Tablespoons salad oil
- 3 medium-sized onions, thinly sliced
- 3 stalks celery, cut in fine strips
- 5 water chestnuts, thinly sliced
- 2 green peppers, sliced in strips
- 1/4 lb. mushrooms, sliced

Dust the two pounds of cubed meat with the combined one teaspoon salt, and one and one-half tablespoons flour. Heat one tablespoon of the oil in a heavy saucepan or Dutch oven. Add the meat and brown slowly on all sides. Cover tightly and cook over very low heat about one hour or until meat is tender.

Add a little water if necessary to keep meat from sticking to pan.

In a heavy skillet, heat the remaining one tablespoon oil.

Add the three sliced onions, 3 stalks celery, five water chestnuts, two green peppers and one-fourth pound mushrooms; cover and cook slowly just until soft, about ten minutes. Add vegetables to meat.

Serves six.

NEXT COMES an entree that uses ground beef, and what makes this dish different is the fact that it is combined with sauerkraut. What is your attitude about sauerkraut? Love it? Hate it? Like it? Never touch it? If you are a sauerkraut lover, or liker, or if you have simply never tried it, here's a different way to serve it.

MEATBALLS WITH SAUERKRAUT

- 1 lb. ground meat
- 1/4 cup dry fine bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 Tablespoon catsup
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon horseradish
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 4 Tablespoons salad oil or bacon fat

Combine the one pound ground meat with the one-fourth cup bread crumbs, one-fourth cup water, one tablespoon catsup, one-fourth cup chopped onion, one teaspoon each horseradish and salt and the one-fourth pepper. Add the slightly beaten egg and mix lightly.

Heat the four tablespoons of oil in a heavy skillet. Add meatballs, cook and turn until browned. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes about 20 meatballs.

- 1 can sauerkraut (17 ounces)
- 2 medium-sized apples, pared, cored, and quartered
- 1 Tablespoon finely chopped onion
- 2 Tablespoons dark brown sugar
- 1 Tablespoon wine vinegar
- one-eighth teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon caraway seeds

Heat oven to 350-degrees. Combine the one can sauerkraut with the 2 quartered apples, one tablespoon chopped onion, two tablespoons brown sugar, one tablespoon wine vinegar, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one-half teaspoon each salt and caraway seeds. Place in a 1 1/2 quart casserole. Arrange browned meat balls on top of sauerkraut. Cover. Bake one hour. Serves four.

WHAT WOULD WE do without tuna? It is the mainstay of most school lunches, not to mention casseroles. Here it is in another form, combined with baked potatoes.

TUNA-STUFFED BAKED POTATOES

- 2 cans tuna
- 6 medium baking potatoes
- 1 Tablespoon butter
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- Dash pepper
- 1 1/2 Tablespoons grated onion
- 3 Tablespoons chopped parsley
- three-fourths to one cup hot milk
- three-fourths cup grated cheese

Drain the two cans of tuna. Flake. Bake potatoes in a hot oven, 425-degrees, for 45 to 60 minutes, or until soft. Cut slice off top of each potato, scoop out insides. Mash potatoes. Add the one tablespoon butter, one and one-half teaspoons salt, dash of pepper, one and one-half tablespoons grated onion, three tablespoons chopped parsley, and the three-fourths to one cup milk. Blend well.

Mix in the two cans drained tuna. Stuff shells with tuna-potato mixture. Sprinkle the tops of potatoes with grated cheese, using the three-fourths cup on the six potatoes. Bake in hot oven, 400-degrees, for 25 to 30 minutes.

ANOTHER BAKED POTATO DISH uses sausage as its meat. It's easy and quite inexpensive.

SAUSAGE POTATO BOATS

- 1/2 lb. sausage links
- 4 medium baking potatoes
- Sausage drippings
- Onion
- Milk

Fry the one-half pound sausage slowly for 12 minutes, pouring off fat as it accumulates. Bake the four potatoes 45 minutes to an hour, or until soft. Then cut off tops, remove inside, mash and season with the sausage drippings and grated onion, using about one tablespoon fat and one teaspoon onion for each. Add heated milk and beat until fluffy. Season to taste.

Fill the potato shells with mashed potatoes. Place two link sausage on top of each. With pastry tube or fork, flute potatoes around edges of potato skins. Place under broiler to brown. Serves four.

Note: I cooked an extra pound of sausage and served it with potato boats.

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all you good cooks!

The John Puccinellis To Make Home in Serramonte

The Catholic Church of the Epiphany was the setting for the recent marriage of Diane Borrelli and John Puccinelli. A reception followed the noon nuptial mass at the Italian American Social Club. Diane, the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Louie Borrelli, wore a white crepe gown with a jacket detailed with rose appliques on the scalloped edge. Three fabric roses caught her veil, and she carried white roses.

Carolyn Murphy was the matron of honor for her sister with Carol Puccinelli, sister of the benedict, and Linda Ferrari as bridesmaids. Lorie Trapani was junior bridesmaid, and the entire party wore green velvet gowns with white lace bodices. They carried velvet muffs with white roses.

Barry Martin served as best man for John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Puccinelli. Guests were seated by William Bordin and Larr Trapani.

Mrs. Borrelli received guests in a mint-green dress, while Mrs. Puccinelli chose aqua. Both pinned on white orchids.

After a wedding trip to Los Angeles, the couple returned to live in Serramonte.

The new matron attended Immaculate Conception Academy. Her husband attended Riordan High School and San Francisco State College.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE

REMEMBER THOSE OLD COUNTRY STORES?

Some of you may remember the days of the old-fashioned grocery store where you came in, browsed around, made yourself at home and where you and the owner called each other by first names.

Or, the country store where you could buy anything from fertilizer to calico, and where men sat around on cracker barrels and talked all day.

Of course, with modern progress, most of these stores have gone and are part of pleasant nostalgia — but there was something nice to save from that era, and that was the helpful attitude and the cordial atmosphere of those stores.

They weren't cold, sterilized and automated. They were warm and friendly.

Here at Sterling Furniture, although our selection of furniture is large and completely up-to-date, we still try to maintain the old-fashioned, relaxed atmosphere where a person may come in, make themselves at home, browse around, discuss their decorating problems and get help in the selection of their furniture without fear of high pressure.

We're very proud of the many customers we've satisfied, and would like the opportunity of adding your name to this group.

Lewis McDermott of Daly City Heads Contractors

Lewis J. McDermott of Daly City has been elected and installed as president of the American Building Contractors Association. The organization represents 2,000 firms in the construction industry throughout California.

McDermott is president of the family firm, L. J. McDermott & Sons, 2111 Jennings Street, San Francisco. The firm specializes in commercial and residential remodeling, principally kitchens.

McDermott has been a resident of Daly City for 15 years. He and his wife, Gloria, have two children, 16 and 13.

The new ABCA president got his start in the construction industry as a carpenter in 1941 and built many homes in San Francisco and Daly City both before and after World War II as an employee of Henry Doelger. During the war, he served in the Navy.

McDermott was installed to his post December 14 in ceremonies at the new Los Angeles Music Center. Mrs. McDermott accompanied him for the banquet and installation.

In his inaugural speech, McDermott said, "We in the building industry are concerned about spiraling costs of labor, materials, financing and land. We are concerned about both the typical user of our product and the contractor who supplies that product, whether it be home, commercial building or factory."

"In 1968," McDermott concluded, "I will bend my best efforts toward creating a climate in which there is opportunity for the average contractor and the average user in an era of giant construction corporations."

Officers Are Elected

T. H. "Ted" Showalter, assistant to the vice president, base maintenance for United Air Lines, International Airport, was elected the 1968 president of Peninsula Manufacturers Association at its annual meeting.

To serve with Showalter are First Vice President James E. Brown, Ampex Corporation, Redwood City; Second Vice President Jerry E. Fuller, Owens-Corning Fiberglass Corporation, Santa Clara; and E. R. Dudley of Peco Corporation, Mountain View, as treasurer.

Dudley was re-elected to a second term on the board of directors at the meeting and in accepting the nomination as treasurer will continue his second year in that capacity.

Newly elected to the board of directors is Howard C. Beede of the American Bridge Division, U.S. Steel, South San Francisco.

Showalter was elected to PMA's board of directors and as its first vice president in 1967. His three-year term runs from 1967 through 1969.

The newly elected president is a native of Nampa, Idaho. He graduated from the University of Idaho with a degree in mechanical engineering. He began his airline career in 1933 as a line apprentice with Pacific Air Transport.

THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT has infected the entire cast of female impersonators in Flinocchio's revue. From beginning to end, the colorful show reflects the Yuletide season. Letter From Hawaii To Foster's Brings Results

THIS BEING the time of year when kind deeds play a major part in bringing happiness to others, thought you might like to read the following two letters which were brought to the attention of your Bright Lighter by Henry Solomon, president of Foster Lunch System, Ltd.: "Foster Cafeteria, Sutter Street Branch, San Francisco. Gentlemen: My Mother is forever recalling the delicious food she was served when she resided in San Francisco during the Korean war, and especially does she speak longingly of your egg salad sandwiches on English muffins and your devil's food cake with pale green peppermint icing. Her birthday is December 20th, and she is such a good Mother, I am wondering if you can give me a price on a cake for her, and send it to us airmail. I am seventeen years old, and I have a sister fourteen and a brother twelve. We will put our money together if you will tell me how much it will cost to get a cake here to her. My Mother works very hard from about eight in the morning till about six thirty or seven each night as a dental assistant, so that my brother and sister and I can have nice things and so I can go to college when I graduate from high school this coming June. She never had a birthday cake or party when she was growing up, and I would like to do this for her. If you will please let me know how much it will be I will send the money to you. Thank you for your help. Yours truly, Miss Beverly Nickels, 6760 108th Street, Ewa Beach, Hawaii."

Henry Solomon

Foster's Reply to Beverly Nickels Request

"MISS BEVERLY NICHOLS, 6760 108th Street, Ewa Beach, Hawaii. Dear Beverly: First of all, let me tell you how delighted all of us here at Foster's Main Office were to receive your letter of November 20th. Please tell your Mother how much we appreciate her loyalty as a Foster customer after all these years. We still make the Egg Salad Sandwich on English Muffins. However, we discontinued producing the devil's food cake with the pale green peppermint icing. As a special favor, Mr. Galmeyer, our Production Manager, looked up the formula for making this Special Cake and we are going to make it, with all the trimmings, freeze it solid, pack it with dry ice and airmail it to you. It will arrive there the day before your Mother's birthday. It will be delivered directly to your home. Remove the cake from the dry ice packing and it will thaw in a few hours. Now, about the fact that you, your brother and sister pooling all of your money together to pay for it — Mr. Solomon, President of Foster Lunch System, after reading your letter, wishes to present the cake to you with his compliments. Let his birthday cake be our contribution to make this happiest birthday ever for your mother. I am sure she realizes the wonderful children she has and that is the reason she works so hard for you. From the nice letter you have written, I am sure you and your brother and sister love her very much. All of us here at Foster's wish your mother a very happy birthday and we also wish you, your brother and sister the very best luck ever. Sincerely, Foster Lunch System, Ltd., J. P. Cox, Bakery Dept. Mgr."

THE LINES OF HUNGRY DINERS will probably extend out into the parking lot at Yolanda's Terminal Cafe, this holiday weekend. Manager Chuck Winstead's unique "Family-style Dinners" have been one of the biggest food draws on the Peninsula ... The one price paid per person for the Fourth Annual King's Bowl New Year's celebration also includes all the drinks you can handle, plus a prime rib dinner and unlimited bowling and billiards ... Dinner will be served from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. New Year's Eve at Bruno's, downtown San Mateo. On New Year's Day, host Tom Zucchelli will open the lounge early for those interested in watching the parades and football games. Chef Bruno Fava will begin the evening's dinner service at 4 p.m. ... The exciting Norsemen Trio will be featured as the New Year is welcomed in at San Mateo's Hillsdale Inn. $12 per person includes everything, even the tip. ... Reservations are now being taken for New Year's dining and dancing fun at the New Southern restaurant, in South San Francisco ... The usual heavy luncheon crowd was gathered at Fabbro's, last Monday. Few people from around Redwood City let the prevailing weather conditions keep them from their favorite mid-day dining haven.

THE "NEW LOOK" in all the meeting room facilities at the Villa Hotel will be completed by the end of this month. Retaining the original good styling, the redecorating will include new drapes, new wood tones and refinishing of the ballroom and meeting room floors. Along with the refurbishing of the main Pacifica Ballroom and the Camino Room, the Villa Hotel management announced that exceptional new space will be developed with complete renewing of the French Room, eliminating the booths and bandstand in the former dining room, to provide another exceptional meeting room seating approximately 200 people. At the same time, the owners have announced that the remaining 100 guest rooms to be refurbished, from carpet to ceiling, will have been completed within a matter of weeks. Also, an automatic direct dial telephone service will be installed at the Villa Hotel as soon as equipment is available.

DAVE RASMUSSEN'S SHADOWS of San Mateo has been jammed at noontime all through the week, as usual, and a holiday mood was prevalent. Several of the major business firms chose Wednesday for their long-awaited office parties ... That smiling face you see behind the plank at Bruno's, in San Francisco, belongs to Al Adams, who worked at Engler's during the pre-fire days ... Reservations are still being taken for New Year's Eve dining at South San Francisco's Leaning Tower restaurant. Regular menu fare and prices will be in effect, announced the Ercoli brothers ... Here's a year-end salute to the matchless staff of waiters, headed by captain Karl Handwerk, at L'Auberge, in Atherton ... Although the El Patio, in Menlo Park, is considered an authentic Mexican restaurant, owners Jim and Shelly Llewellyn also serve standard American dishes during lunch ... Located on Burlingame's California Drive, easy access to freeways and all other major streets makes the Matterhorn Swiss restaurant a favorite dining place for many who have immediate after-dinner plans.

Stan Kenton Tops The Thunderbolt Party

VETERAN BANDSMAN Stan Kenton and his Orchestra will bring their mellow "big band" sounds to the Peninsula on New Year's Eve when they appear for an evening of dining and dancing at Michael Gottlieb's Thunderbolt Hotel in Millbrae. Besides ushering in the New Year with the nostalgic sounds of the Kenton Orchestra, celebrants will see their festivities being televised live, with a coast-to-coast hook-up via NBC. Tickets are $10 per person. Thunderbolt Hotel manager, Duane Dennis, will be offering a special package rate for those choosing to stay overnight New Year's... Bob Close and The Playboys orchestra provide the New Year's Eve dance music at Cafe El Portal by Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. $10 per person price will include dinner, dancing and party favors at this popular spot... The Galaxie on San Francisco's Broadway will have its topless show, music, hats, noisemakers and favors for its New Year's Eve crowds.

THE NEW YEAR will see several startling changes take place at one of San Mateo's hottest night spots — Jack McRae and Phil Maita's Fireside Lounge. In addition to modern Dixie-land-style entertainment, January 2 will see a complete new crew of Topless dancers and waitresses. Action will begin a bit earlier in the evening (from 4 p.m.). The recently initiated after-hour shows on weekends will be expanded to three full performances... Fabulous Spanish Flamenca dancer Mariquita will be appearing New Year's Eve at Jon and Rick Benn's Tangent, in Palo Alto. One show only for the fiery dance sensation at 7 p.m., then the famed illegitimate Theater will perform at 9 and 11 p.m., and 1 a.m. Judging from the crowds flocking to Alexi's Zorba Supperclub, in Burlingame, to see Laura, "Darling of Greece." The club will no doubt book her back for a return 1968 engagement... The Concor will be introducing its new "Super Topless" star on New Year's Eve. Billed as the "act which will replace Carol Doda," North Beach anxiously awaits the premier.

Greater Dedication This Year to Jewish Chanukah

By RABBI SOLOMON A. SHORE

The Jewish Festival of Lights (Chanukah) is being celebrated this year throughout the world with greater dedication than ever before in history.

The victorious battles which were on during the six day war between Israel and its Arab neighbors is the cause for it.

For the first time in over 2,000 years Jewish soldiers are guarding the Holy shrines which are very meaningful and greatly revered by all three major religions, Christian, Jewish and Islam's Faiths.

This is an episode in world history which has no precedent in days gone by — and its importance is of great historical significance to each one of the three world religions.

The historical background of this Jewish festival brings us to the time when Greece displayed its might and power over the Aegean Sea area as well as over all of Asia Minor. The entire middle east was ruled harshly and without any consideration for religious freedom. Greek legions were stationed all over the area zealously guarding the interests of Greece — which was considered the leading military power of the time.

History tells us that the inhabitants of that part of the world conceded to the wishes of Greece — save one little country known as Israel — the people of that land had established their own way of life, their own culture and their own religion. The Israelites refused to yield to Greek demands.

The Syrians who never got along with their Israeli neighbors saw an opportunity to crush their neighbor by joining the Greek legions who were stationed there.

The Jewish State rebelled against this foreign domination and engaged both their enemies, the Greeks as well as the Syrians until they completely drove their enemies out of the Holy Land and thus the annual remembrance of this great historical happening was established for all time.

Since it was religious freedom that the Jews of that time desired more than anything else — that freedom was completely restored in the land of Israel — and the story of the concilable oil which lasted eight days long on the altar of the Holy Temple because the symbol of the modern Menorah which Jewish people light every evening.

During a recent visit to Israel, I visited most of these holy places and was impressed with the sacred memories which they bring to all worshippers.

This year, Christians, Jews and Moslems celebrate the Holiday Season at the same time and at the same place.

Playgrounds Will Reopen

The Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department's after-school playground program will re-open January 2.

Playgrounds are located at Fairmont, Westview, Pacifica Manor, Sharp Park, Vallemar, Ortega Sanchez, Linda Mar, and Pedro Valley schools.

Playgrounds are open between 3:30 and 5 p.m.

The new season will include new programs for the six to twelve-year olds.

A boys' basketball league will be taking sign-ups, with league play starting January 13.

In addition to these two activities starting on playgrounds there will also be arts and crafts, contests and games, singing and dramatics and special events.

Man Burned At Daly City

Otto Gurtener, 57, suffered superficial burns on the right arm and left leg Monday when fumes of a mixture of a paint thinner and gasoline ignited in the basement of his home at 56 Upland Street in Daly City.

Daly City Fire Battalion Chief Mel Hanson said Gurtener and a son were sweeping down the garage, using the volatile mixture, shortly before 3 p.m.

Gurtener was taken to Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City, but was not admitted.

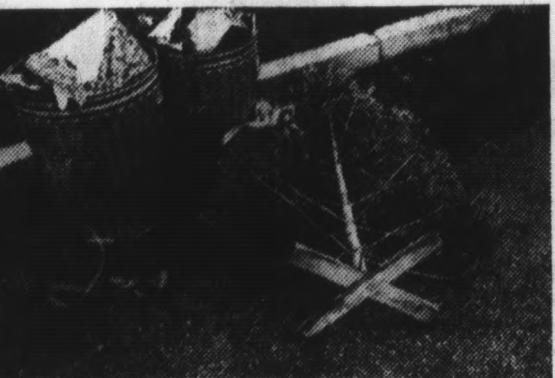

His son's pantsleg caught fire, but the boy extinguished the blaze himself, using a nearby garden hose, Hanson said.

Firemen administered emergency first aid.

Smoke ejectors were put to work to clear out smoke and gas fumes from the home.

There was no actual fire damage to the structure, Hanson said.

It's all over but the bills.

Let us lend you the money to cope with that awful post-holiday letdown your bank account feels. Open a No-bounce Account. Once you're approved, write checks for all those bills. We'll advance you the money to cover all the checks—from $100 to $2400, depending on your No-bounce Account limit.

Take it easy. Repaying can be a nice, gradual process. Take months. Of course, we do charge 1 1/2% interest per month on the average daily balance due—but you can eliminate a lot of worrying for that 1 1/2%.

Be an unknown. The joy of a No-bounce Account is that it's all so discreet. When you write checks to activate an automatic loan, who knows? Only our computer. And it's so busy keeping track of our $900-million bank, it hardly has time to gossip.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST GIFT SELECTION IN THE BAY AREA

THE POST AUTO WORLD

American Motors and Gulton Industries have announced a joint venture for development of an electronic automobile.

The AM prototype, a small, three-passenger commuter car called the "Amitron," and the newly developed long-life, light-weight Gulton lithium battery system to be used to power it were displayed recently at a news conference in Detroit.

The complete battery system can be fully recharged approximately a thousand times over a period of three years. The batteries can be recharged in four hours. The capacity to drive about 20 miles can be recharged in 30 minutes on ordinary house current or in ten minutes with a special outlet.

Roy D. Chapman Jr., chairman of the board of American Motors, said, "A car of this type would provide many benefits, especially for city use where short trips are most common. The apparent efficiencies of an electronic system, combined with quietness of operation and the absence of exhaust offers obvious advantages for heavily congested urban areas."

Features of the car include: Air-filled seats which could be deflated and lowered to floor level to provide a large cargo-carrying area, a clamshell-type opening to permit ease of entry and exit, rubber-vinyl bumpers which absorb impacts and will return to its original shape, and large windows which give the appearance that half the car is glass.

Promotion of Robert F. Palmer to manager of Chevrolet's ten-state Pacific Coast regional wholesale operations, headquartered at Oakland, has been announced by Lee N. Mays, the division's general sales manager.

Mays said the appointment is effective January 1.

Palmer, 22-year veteran of the Chevrolet sales organization, succeeds Kenneth J. Parish, who is retiring after more than 36 years with the division. Parish had served as Pacific Coast regional manager since February, 1965.

The Pacific Coast regional office at 235 West MacArthur Boulevard serves approximately 660 Chevrolet dealers in an area including California, Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, and Alaska, and parts of Arizona and Wyoming.

Renault, Inc., reported recently that U.S. retail sales of Renaults continued their steady climb in November, marking the firm's fifteenth consecutive month of sales increases. The November retail sales figure of 1,883 units shows a rise of 32.2 per cent over the corresponding month in 1966, bringing the year-to-date figure to 18,821 units—63.7 per cent over the same period a year earlier. The total of 1,883 units is the highest November figure since 1963.

There's plenty of colorful sparkle and luscious flavor in orange-cranberry bread and muffins, both made from the same recipe. Sweet Florida orange juice teams with tart "marsh rubies"—more familiarly known as cranberries—for a loaf to serve with afternoon tea and a dozen muffins that will disappear in the twinkling of an eye at Sunday breakfast.

As the loaf may be frozen, why not bake several to have on hand for holiday gifting? Party hostesses, friends and neighbors would love a taste treat you made yourself!

Orange-Cranberry Bread And Muffins

4 cups flour 1/2 cup shortening, melted
2 cups sugar 2 eggs, well beaten
3 teaspoons baking powder 2 tablespoons grated
1 teaspoon baking soda orange rind
2 teaspoons salt 2 cups coarsely chopped
1 1/2 cups fresh Florida orange fresh cranberries juice

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda and salt. Add orange juice, shortening, eggs and grated rind. Stir with fork just to dampen. Carefully fold in cranberries. Pour 1/2 batter into greased 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Bake in 350°F. oven for about 1 1/2 hours or until loaf tests done. Garnish with orange slices, if desired. Spoon remaining batter into greased 2 1/2-inch muffin tins. Bake in 350°F. oven for 20 to 25 minutes or until muffins test done. YIELD: 1 loaf and 12 muffins.

Note: Loaf may be frozen if desired.

Confections With A Festive 'Air'

Sweet things to eat are part and parcel of holiday pleasures. And delectable confections which require little or no cooking are favorites of cook as well as family and guests. Chocolate Marshmallow Haystacks—of the "no-cook" type—fit beautifully into the festive scheme.

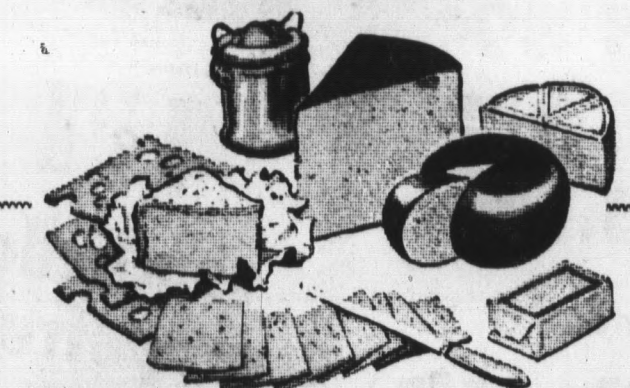

Piquant cream cheese is the secret to their smooth character and is responsible for their fudge-like consistency. Combined with confectioners' sugar, it's a popular base for several varieties of uncooked candies. In this case, melted chocolate flavors the cheese-sugar mixture and then you fold in miniature marshmallows for taste and texture surprises. For a final flip, the luscious little morsels are tossed in flaked coconut.

It's a generous recipe that makes four dozen "goodies" so you can keep some handy in the refrigerator to offer holiday callers. Chocolate Marshmallow Haystacks make neighborly gifts, too, especially if you arrange them in an attractive carrier such as a large brandy snifter, novelty candy dish or pretty bowl that can be used later for flowers.

Chocolate Marshmallow Haystacks

1 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese 1/4 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons milk Dash of salt
2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar 3 cups miniature
1-oz. squares unsweetened chocolate, melted marshmallows
Flaked coconut

Combine softened cream cheese and milk, mixing until well blended. Gradually add sugar. Stir in chocolate, vanilla and salt; fold in marshmallows. Drop rounded teaspoons of mixture in coconut; toss until well covered. Place on baking sheet; chill until firm. Yield: 4 dozen.

In this era of mod fashions and mini skirts, why not modernize your kitchen techniques? With a self-basting turkey you can greatly abbreviate the time spent in the kitchen this season. Allow yourself the luxury of entertaining guests with ease and let the turkey baste itself.

A unique process that puts creamery butter deep inside the breast, legs and thighs of young turkeys, allows the bird to baste itself from the inside out while roasting. The results—a tender, moist, flavorful turkey that never roasts dry.

Even though this bird belongs to the new generation, it can still be served in traditional style, perhaps with this Golden Corn Stuffing.

Roast Turkey With Golden Corn Stuffing
 10-12 pound self-basting turkey
 Prepare turkey according to instructions on bag. Stuff neck and body cavities with corn stuffing.

Stuffing
 ½ cup butter
 ½ cup diced onion
 ½ cup diced green pepper
 ½ cup diced celery
 1 cup broth
 12-ounce package frozen shredded potatoes, thawed
 1 quart seasoned dry bread cubes
 8½ ounce can whole kernel corn
 1 teaspoon salt
 ½ teaspoon pepper
 2 eggs, slightly beaten

Melt butter. Add onion, green pepper and celery. Cook over low heat until onion is clear. Add thawed shredded potatoes and broth. Simmer 5 minutes. Pour over bread cubes and corn. Add salt, pepper and eggs. Stir gently to blend.

Potpourri Of Color Lights

Like a colorful pot-roast? This one takes a Southern accent with a medley of color from many varieties of vegetables.

Tomatoes furnish the braising liquid as well as some of the vegetable color, but there are also corn kernels and green lima beans that come with the frozen succotash.

Any of the cuts appropriate for a pot-roast can be used, with arm and blade cuts of beef as the most popular. Tomatoes are added at the beginning of cooking time while succotash is added later.

SOUTHERN POT-ROAST
 4 to 5 pound beef arm pot-roast
 3 tablespoons lard or drippings
 2½ teaspoons salt
 ¼ teaspoon pepper
 ¾ cup chopped onion
 1 can (16 ounces) tomatoes
 1 package (10½ ounces) frozen succotash

Brown pot-roast in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add salt, pepper, onion and tomatoes. Cover tightly and simmer 2½ to 3 hours or until meat is tender. Add succotash and continue to simmer for 15 minutes. Serve on heated platter—6 to 8 servings.

Delightful Sandwiches

Thin slices of roast lamb tucked inside bread which has been buttered and spread with a thin film of mint jelly provide delightful eating.

Hearty open-faced sandwiches will please the carolers if you invite them in for a snack. Spread mashed canned baked beans over buttered slices of Boston brown bread, sprinkle with grated Cheddar cheese and top with bacon strips. Broil until bacon is crisp.

Ham sandwiches can be broiled if they're topped with a mixture made of ¼ cup butter or margarine creamed with an equal amount of brown sugar and 2 teaspoons prepared mustard.

Have you tried chipped or dried beef slices with cheese for grilling? Wonderful

Plan Those Holiday Season Meals Around One Good Casserole

It's here again! That wonderful, hectic, exciting holiday season. Busy is about the only response we get from friends and neighbors as we go busily about our daily tasks, making lists of last-minute gifts to buy, house-cleaning from top to toe and planning special menus. It's busy alright, but who would want to miss a minute of it.

One way to make the holiday season easier on yourself is to plan your meals around one good casserole. Make it big enough to warm up for lunch next day, or to invite drop-in-guests to share it with you at dinner. Such casseroles rest comfortably on the family winter dinner table as they do on the holiday buffet. They're based on convenient canned salmon, cooked in a rich sauce and served on a bed of cooked pasta. They look colorful and creamy served in a handsome stove-to-table casserole dish and, what's best about them is that, they may be prepared early in the day and reheated for half an hour before serving. Canned salmon fits the moods and manners of any season of the year and is a boon to the busy homemaker. It combines as easily with rice as it does with spaghetti or noodles, and it enhances the nutritional qualities of any dish in which it is included. It contributes the best kind of essential protein, since it contains none of the undesirable saturated fats. Here are two new salmon recipes for the busy homemaker.

SALMON SUZANNE
8 ounces thin spaghetti
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 pound mushrooms, sliced
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon curry powder

4 cups (1 quart) milk
1 pound can salmon
Juice of 1/2 lemon
2 tablespoons sherry
4 tablespoons shredded cheese
1/2 cup fresh bread crumbs
Cook spaghetti in a large quantity of rapidly boiling salted water for 10 minutes, or until barely tender. Drain and rinse well with cold water. Empty into 2-quart casserole.

In a large skillet melt butter or margarine and in it saute mushrooms for 5 minutes. Stir in flour, salt, pepper and curry powder. Gradually stir in milk and cook, stirring, until sauce is smooth and slightly thickened. Stir in salmon liquid from the can. Flake and add salmon.

Correct seasoning with salt and stir in lemon juice and sherry.
Pour most of the sauce from the skillet into the casserole and toss with spaghetti. Make a hole in center of the spaghetti and empty salmon and mushrooms into the hole. Combine cheese and bread crumbs and sprinkle over top.

To serve: Preheat oven to 350 degree F. oven. Bake casserole in the moderate oven for 30 minutes. Garnish prettily with sprigs of parsley before serving. Serves 6.

SALMON ROYALE
12 ounces medium noodles
4 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup chopped green onions
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon cayenne
3 1/2 cups chicken broth (2 cans)
2 pound cans salmon
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup toasted buttered bread crumbs

Cook noodles in plenty of rapidly boiling salted water for 10 minutes, or until barely tender. Drain, rinse in cold water and empty into a 2 1/2-quart casserole.

In saucepan melt butter and in it saute green onions for 5 minutes. Stir in flour, salt, paprika and cayenne. Gradually stir in chicken broth and cook, stirring, until sauce is smooth and slightly thickened. Stir in liquid from cans of salmon. Flake and add salmon. Stir in lemon juice.

Combine egg yolks and cream. Gradually stir egg mixture into salmon mixture and cook, stirring, over very low heat for 3 minutes. Do not let sauce boil. Pour salmon mixture over noodles and stir gently to mix. Sprinkle with crumbs.

To serve: Heat in a 325 degree F. oven for 30 minutes. Serves 8.

Toasted filberts and flavor!
Tea with Milk or Lemon
FILBERT SAND COOKIES
1-3 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup grated toasted filberts (use a rotary hand device)
2-3 cup unsifted regular flour
In a medium mixing bowl, cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Add filberts and flour; with hands, blend thoroughly. Using 1 tablespoon for each, shape into balls; place about 1 inch apart on ungreased cookie sheets; with palm of hand, flatten to a little more than 1/4-inch thick; if edges crack, mold together. Bake in a 325-degree oven until lightly browned—about 20 minutes. Makes about 20. (To toast filberts, bake in a single layer in a shallow pan in a 400-degree oven, shaking pan a few times—5 to 15 minutes. Rub off as much of the brown skin as you can.)

New Year Thoughts

WE'RE GLAD IT'S ALMOST OVER. There seems to be more office parties every year and less cheer at them . . . maybe it's just us. At any rate, we sloshed everytime we tried to walk after one of them.

The tree is starting to lose its needles already and the house hasn't been properly cleaned since our own house party two weeks ago. Wrapping paper, tinsel stuck in the corners, and the constant "gosh . . . just what we wanted" can be stored away for another year.

But the Old Year is still here and we ponder what the New Year will bring. Let's hope it will be happier and more prosperous than ever. There's always hope! What would we do without it?

NOW WE MUST BRACE OURSELVES for the endless "news stories" of the year that will be consuming ever inch in every local paper, every TV channel and most radio broadcasts. Each media will come up with what they think was the Top Story of 1967. We have our own ideas.

AND IN THE NEW YEAR WE RESOLVE: To give up cigar smoking; continue to maintain our dazzling smile while speaking to irate readers; believe every word our politicians tell us without question; tolerate hippies while continuing to ignore them; attempt to figure out what ABAG is the abbreviation of, along with what they are trying to do, and answer the ever-present question: Can we win the war (at our State colleges)?

IF YOU CAN STAND THE DELAY we're going to tell you all about our "Casino Christmas" at Lake Tahoe next week. The glamour and glitter of the great gambling dens, the ski slopes, the lousy drive up there (whoops).

SAN BRUNO CHAMBER just named its new board of directors. Congratulations to Al Cloud, George Corey, James Holderby, William Isackson, Juan Mir, Dick Stagg, Roy Tierney, Tom Palmer, Frank Marchand and John Pierce. May the New Year be a busy one for you all.

OFF TO NEW ORLEANS for training in the life insurance firm of Pan American Life is San Bruno Chamber Treasurer Oscar Lopez-Guerra. He'll eventually be assigned to the firm's Latin-American offices (hopefully in his native Peru).

HERE'S A TWIST — Crestmoor High in San Bruno is going to have a "non-happening." That's right! PT-A members will be asked to donate $1 NOT to have to attend a fund-raising event. And wouldn't that be a heck of a good idea for all those office parties. Just send whomever is sponsoring said party a card saying how delighted you are NOT to have been invited. Might start a whole new thing.

CONCERN DEPT — There was one-half of a man running around the Civic Center in Daly City for a while this year. At least that's what the contents of a memo from Manager Edward Frank to the City Council disclosed last week.

In asking for additional custodial help for the center, Frank pointed out, "At the time of moving to the new Civic Center, this office recommended, and the council authorized, an additional ONE-HALF MAN, bringing the total to seven men." This time Frank is asking the council for a WHOLE MAN.

Wonder what they had that half-man doing? Working parttime? Or was he half-man and half? . . . Sorry we even brought it up.

FLASHY FLASH — Watch for a Bekins Van and Storage complex to be built soon in Daly City . . . A South San Francisco woman is upset that I should "make fun" of that proposed 10 story "skyscraper" being talked about between planners and a construction company. Says it will block the view, etc., etc. . . . The D.C. Baccala Club, established to bring Good Men and Good Food together at Toto Spadarella's restaurant once each week, added another ingredient last Tuesday night — members brought their wives along.

From all indications the hubbies and their spouses had a GREAT time. Exchanging gifts, gabbing and dining. We understand the joke department was a little weak, however.

EYESORE OF THE WEEK

CLUTTERED YARDS, unfinished homes and rubble-strewn lots are not uncommon in the county. Unfortunately "eyesores" such as this give the entire neighborhood a rundown look. Tighter enforcement of existing laws regarding abandoned, or "junk" cars, is needed in this particular case, plus perhaps a visit from the County Health Inspector. A Tip of our Topper to the citizen who called The Post's attention to this situation.

Newsboys' Toil

THIS ISN'T National Newspaper carrier week, yet after the recent cold (brrrr!) blow we cannot help but put in a good word for the youngsters who deliver newspapers in all sorts of weather.

We don't mean just the Post carriers — you kids carrying The Times, too, are due a kind word and encouragement during this coming New Year.

Post-wise, these youngsters get up at dawn, or before . . . and despite the recent cold spell, tossed dutifully their papers on the doorsteps.

And they shivered an awful lot. We know, 'cause a couple of our sons are among these lads. We saw them trudge along in the cold, their hands and feet showing not the strain of the walk, but, rather, the numbing of the cold.

We'd nearly forgotten what it was like. And we know most people who take the various newspapers don't give the kids more than a half a thought.

The newspaper carrier is much like the postman. He must make his appointed rounds come rain, hail sleet snow cold, sore feet, mean dogs and unappreciative "customers."

The kid and his newspaper route is an institution. Every youngster probably somewhere along the way has wanted such a route. Most of them are good at it — see the challenge and the few bucks it brings in return.

(Some don't accept the responsibility — but in time they succumb to the toil and strain and are replaced.)

We recall our own delivery days: up at 4:30 a.m. daily to fold the S.F. papers that came to us up in the "boonies" on the 5 a.m. milk train.

At first we rode bikes, then graduated to the rumble seat of an old, beat-up roadster (or some such machine) to sling the papers from the middle of the street onto the sidewalks and doorsteps (sometimes an upstairs window or two if the wind was right or the arm was beat), as the boss drove from one side of the road to the other.

Then it was off to school.

In the afternoon, we tackled an afternoon route, by bike or foot, plopping the rag on the proper sidewalk or porch.

And, by golly, there were the "bad" moments of that carrier-life . . . the drenchings in the torrential rain, the soakings in the splashing water from puddles . . . or from the spill onto a flooded street when street, sidewalks and curb became a common ripple of water — the driveways no longer were obvious for a return to the street.

Finis, the memories . . .

Some New Year Customs

New Year's day has been called the play-day of humanity. The ancient Germans made it a time for feasting and festivity to mark their success in gathering their flocks and their harvests before winter killed all unprotected things.

The early Romans looked upon the New Year as a symbol of putting aside an old life and taking up a new. They presented one another with branches of trees as tokens of good luck for the coming year. Some historians are of the opinion that the custom of decorating houses and churches with evergreens — as we do at Christmas — originated with this Roman practice.

In Merry Olde England it was a custom to clean out the chimneys on New Year's Day so that luck could descend and, of course, remain all year. (Perhaps this is the reason the chimney sweeps in Walt Disney's Mary Poppins were gay.)

The English carried from Rome the custom of making good resolutions — they spoke of cleaning the slate and starting anew.

Across the world in China, the New Year became associated with their Feast of the Lanterns, their gay Festival of the Dragon. Boats and their Fisherman's Festival. These customs originated the components of the Chinese New Year that brightens San Francisco annually.

Savage peoples, too, greet the New Year with great rejoicing. Among the Zulus the opening of the year is celebrated with the Feast of the First Fruits. The men are gorged with the meat of a bull or an ox; they are feasted and feted so they may be strong and prosperous during the coming year.

Gift-Wrapped Auto

The automobile showrooms come alive in December with beautiful new models of cars often wrapped in cellophane and red ribbons, ready for delivery on Christmas Eve.

Discounts and allowances on cars are the greatest during the period immediately preceding the introduction of the new cars. The annual year and inventory reduction sales of automobiles attract the shopper who is looking for the December special prices.

The majority of auto dealers are reputable businessmen who realize that continued business success depends upon customer goodwill. The reliability of the automobile dealer is a most important factor in the purchase of a new or used automobile.

THE PRICES listed on new cars are determined only in part by the manufacturer's suggested list price. Actual selling prices vary due to supply and demand or the price policy of the dealer.

These variations show up in the amount of cash discounts given or in the amount of allowance allowed if a car is to be traded.

Some dealers quote a price over their competitor's selling price on new cars thus putting them in a position to bargain. The average buyer likes to feel that he has gotten a good trade-in allowance on his old car.

If a trade-in is not involved, a fictitious discount is often given which makes also for happy customers. This practice is one form of "padding" new car prices to the buyer.

UNETHICAL DEALERS use "bait" ad-

The Cherokee Indians used New Year's Day to burn all the old clothes and utensils and to clean their lodges. Old fires were extinguished, the ashes and dust removed, and new fires built in their place.

On the following day the festivities began. Everyone wore new apparel; new corn was cooked; new breads and head dresses were displayed while everything old was cast away.

In many parts of the world New Year's Day was a time for prisoners to be pardoned and certain slaves to be freed.

An interesting custom is found in Scotland. There is a quaint old superstition among the people that he who is the first to visit a family on the New Year will be lucky and prosperous throughout the year. Therefore, everyone visits everyone else on New Year's Eve, revellers usually making a scramble to be the first to get his foot in somebody's door.

In our own country — more than most others — New Year's Eve and New Year's Day have become a period of social activity.

The parties and dances of New Year's Eve have become some of the biggest and gayest our world has ever seen.

Even the old customs of making New Year's resolutions and holding open houses have been reduced to merriment.

So filled with the spirit of New Year's Day, American style, a Negro in Harlem stood on a street corner and shouted "Hallelouyear!" "Hallelouyear!" Before morning revelers all over the city were shouting a word that typifies an American New Year—"Hallelouyear!"

Veteran CHP Officer Tells:

How to Stay Alive on Our Freeways

Safe driving is a 365-day a year is it more important than on the holidays.

For ten years Art Kilton has been patrolling the freeways for the California Highway Patrol in Los Angeles and now out of Redwood City office.

He has become an expert on safe driving techniques and he shares some of these with Post readers as a warning prior to the holiday weekend. Kilton and fellow officers are teaching driver safety at Hillcrest Juvenile Hall and he is hoping to start a motorcycle driving school soon on the Peninsula.

One of the major problems on the Peninsula involves getting off and on the freeway, said Kilton.

Major mistake is slowing down and then attempting to swerve into the flow of traffic. This causes a tie-up behind the driver on the clover leaf, plus confusion on the through freeway traffic.

Kilton recommends that the driver entering the freeway hold firm to the right and follow a straight course at 30 miles an hour just as if he were continuing on the freeway itself. The driver on the clover leaf has as much right of way as the freeway motorist. There are no yield or stop signs involved.

Same policy should prevail in leaving the freeway.

Kilton also notes that many drivers fail to practice common courtesy in permitting drivers to move into their lane particularly when the traffic is blocked in one lane or the lanes reduce from three or four to two.

Every driver is in the same situation at one time or another and if each would permit one person to slide in ahead of him at a normal speed there would be no bunching up, said Kilton.

The slow driver is another nemesis and thousands of citations have been issued on freeways here since a slow driver crackdown has begun.

The slow driver should always stick to the right. Actually the right lane on Bayshore is the fastest in the long run for most commuters since the faster drivers move in and out leaving less congestion," he said. If a driver is in trouble with a faltering car, officers will permit him to limp along until he can get off the freeway to the nearest ramp.

Many drivers have speedometers which are off by as much as 15 miles and when a driver is driving along at what he thinks is 63 miles an hour he might be tagged as being clocked at around 55 miles in the fast lane. "Check the traffic behind you and if people are passing on the right you might be going too slow," he notes.

Another major problem is failure to utilize the full scope of the parking area off the freeway for repairs.

"Many drivers barely edge off the freeway and then try to fix a flat tire with their backs practically in the auto lane. You should squeeze up as close to the fence as practical particularly if the flat tire is on the opposite side of the car," he noted.

And most of all, Kilton concluded, "Don't drive when you are under the influence of alcohol or either prescription or illegal drugs."

D.C. Blaze Rips Home

Fire that roared through a bedroom, destroying its contents, was caused by two youngsters playing with matches Wednesday, a Daly City fire department spokesman said today.

The 8:39 a.m. blaze at 398 Bel Mar Avenue resulted in estimated $2,000 damages to the room and $1,500 in furnishings.

Smoke damage throughout the house also was reported.

Firemen said two children, ages seven and five, admitted to playing with matches in the

Breakdown In Minorities Told

Nearly 57 per cent of the 552 students enrolled in the Bayshore Elementary School District are of minority races an updated Jefferson High School District report shows.

Bayshore is one of four elementary districts that contribute students to the Jefferson High School District.

Others are Brisbane, Jefferson Elementary (Daly City) and Laguna Salada Elementary Districts.

Over 11 per cent of the Brisbane district's 825 students are of minority races, Jefferson High District Superintendent Edward Morgan has disclosed.

Of the 3,416 students Jefferson Elementary "feeds" Daly City's Jefferson High School, on Mission Street, some 42.15 per cent are minority race pupils.

Almost 15 per cent of the Jefferson Elementary students feed to Westmoor High in Daly City are of minority extraction, the report indicates.

The percentage of minority pupils in the Laguna Salada District in Pacifica is 11 per cent of an October enrollment of 9,219 students.

The minorities' breakdown: Bayshore (552 enrollment), 72 pupils with Spanish surname, 64 Negroes, 178 Oriental, American Indian and other non-white.

San Brunan Held For Second Assault

A young San Bruno man arrested last month on charges of assaulting police officers was rearrested last week on similar charges after he allegedly attacked two patrolmen in the San Bruno Police Station.

Craig Malone, 19, is accused of assaulting officers William E. Malloy and Gary Krueger after they apprehended him for parole violation last night.

Police said Malone was making a telephone call, then suddenly attacked the two officers with his fists. He was quickly subdued.

Malone was released on $250 bail last month after he reportedly assaulted several policemen during a fracas on Crystal Springs Road.

One policeman was injured in that incident when Malone struck a microphone he was holding, officers said.

Both the officers involved in the incident last week were treated for minor cuts and bruises.

Low Bid Is Announced

Low bid for improvement to Thornton Beach at the intersection of Skyline and Alemany boulevards, Daly City was $25,730, the State has announced.

Twelve bids were submitted for the Department of Parks and Recreation project. The low bidder is Skeans & Brooks, Inc., Sacramento.

Cigarette Is Seen Cause Of Colma Fire

A fire which apparently started from a cigaret gutted a Colma apartment Saturday, and caused minor damage to an adjacent unit, police say.

Broadmoor police said the fire started about 3:30 a.m. in the apartment of James Little, 1520 Briggs Street. Little had been smoking in bed, authorities said, and may have fallen asleep with a lighted cigaret in his hand.

Three trucks companies from the Colma Volunteer Fire Department and one unit from Daly City fought the fire for about 40 minutes before bringing it under control.

Damage to the Little apartment was extensive, and amounted to several thousand dollars.

An adjacent apartment was slightly damaged by smoke and heat.

Two of Little's children were also in the apartment when the fire started, police said.

Air Medal To S.S.F. Man

U.S. ARMY, Vietnam — For heroism in combat, Army Specialist Four Daniel Franco Jr. (right), receives the Air Medal in ceremonies November 11 at his base in Vietnam. It was his second award of the medal.

Serving as gunner and crew chief on a helicopter, Spec. Franco was on a mission May 15 to airlift a long range reconnaissance patrol into the A Shau Valley. As the aircraft approached the landing zone, the 19-year-old soldier assisted the aircraft commander by advising him of obstacles while he hovered close to the ground to allow the patrol to exit.

During the operation, the helicopter came under heavy enemy fire. Spec. Franco immediately returned the fire with his machine gun and silenced the hostile weapons.

Soon after the landing, the ground patrol requested immediate evacuation because of the heavy opposition and the wounding of a patrol member. Again, the helicopter hovered over the pick-up area while the patrol climbed aboard on rope ladders. Spec. Franco's accurate fire on insurgents made possible the success operation.

Spec. Franco is a door gunner in the 281st Assault Helicopter Company. Spec. Franco is the son of Mrs. Ann Franco, 42 Duval Drive, South San Francisco. His father, Daniel Franco, lives at 9 El Camino Real, Millbrae.

The evening was highlighted by a dance contest, was won by Kevin Gage and Shirley Hayes.

The music for the evening was provided by a young group, "The Just Sound," who brought the dance to a close with their new song, "0.15" which was exactly 15 minutes long.

J-Teen's first activity, conducted by the Park, Beach and Recreation Department, for 1968 will be Co-Rec, on January 5 from 7 to 9 p.m., at Terra Nova Gym. Co-Rec is free with J-Teen Card or application form.

The letters of these girls and boys were selected as best from the hundreds of entries in the contest
"MY BEST CHRISTMAS"

The Times presented each of these winners with a $5 gift order good at any of the stores advertised on the gift spotter page appearing in the classified section of the Times. The two grand prize winners were selected from the 38 winning entries and each was presented with a $15 merchandise order.

DEAR BOYS AND GIRLS:

Our best wishes for a Very Happy Christmas to all participants in the Annual Times-Post Christmas Contest. We were very pleased to have received so many, many inspiring and heartwarming letters.

The contest was very close this year and it was the opinion of the judges that each of the 100 letters you sent was truly inspiring and heartwarming. I assure you that they were so good, it was difficult for the judges to select a winner.

All of you, we are sure, will join us in congratulating our winners, our judges, and the businesses represented on our "Gift Spotter" page for their successful efforts in communicating the spirit of the Yuletide to all of our readers.

You have all helped make it a genuine Merry Christmas.

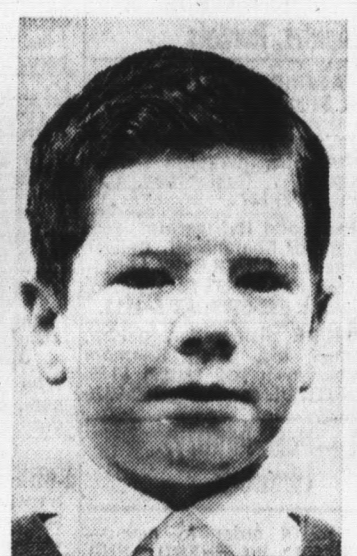

Sincerely,

Margaret Buschini

Holiday Parties Abound

A festive and joyous Hanukkah to all the members of the Jewish community and may the holidays ahead be filled with peace and love.

This is the season of bustle and hustle, cleaning up the remnants of Christmas clutter, observing the ancient rites of the Festival of the Lights and getting ready for the entry of 1968.

Members of the Our Lady of Mercy Festival Committee are working at a feverish pitch to prepare the parish hall for the big, annual New Year's eve party.

Theme for this year's dinner-dance is the "Mad Hatter Gala" and everyone is urged to come wearing the maddest, most original chapeaux that can be conjured from a fertile imagination. According to Mrs. Richard Galliani, publicity chairman, a major event of the evening will be the awarding of a prize for the most original creation.

Mrs. William Shanahan, 992-2650, is in charge of reservations and today is the deadline so hurry to the phone, before it is too late, to get in on all the fun.

The tickets are being sold for $15 per couple and that includes dancing from 9:30 p.m. on, refreshments, party favors, a midnight buffet supper and the music of Pete Maiorana. Mrs. Albert Bucci and John Cresalia are the co-chairmen.

Even before 1967 has bowed out of the picture, the plans are in the works for the spring's first fashion show luncheon.

"Thank Heaven for Little Girls" is the theme of the 144th annual fashion show to be presented on February 3 by the members of the Westlake Catholic Women.

H. Liebes of Westlake will provide the clothes for the event which will be staged in the Grand Ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

Mrs. Albert Fambrini is the chairman of the presentation and she is assisted by co-chairman Mrs. Frank Lawson. Other assisting Mrs. Fambrini are Mrs. J. Jay Flynn, and Mrs. Vincent Baldocchi. Investments; Mrs. John Cresalia and Mrs. Frank Clifford, reservations; Mrs. Eugene Bertorelli and Mrs. Victor Sariotti, decorations; Mrs. Harold Thompson and Mrs. Thomas Killilea, door prizes; Mrs. Frank Kelechava and Mrs. Anthony Formosa, hostesses; Mrs. Donald Gordon and Mrs. Robert Bianchi, programs; Mrs. Robert Markey and Mrs. Byron Davenport, models and Mrs. Richard Galliani, publicity. Mrs. Joan Stack is the secretary and Mrs. Thomas Daly will do the commentary.

It is not too early to obtain reservations and those interested are asked to call Mrs. Cresalia or Mrs. Clifford to make arrangements. Mrs. Galliani said.

Home from a holiday tour of Disneyland are Mrs. Murray H. Freedman, her son, Rick and Jeff, and her mother, Mrs. Jacob Dec.

The Air California tour was the first such trip for Mrs. Dec. A visit to Marineland of the Pacific was also on the agenda.

Mrs. Patti Parks Stolz took time out from her many musical chores to present her family with the new star, Scott Sherwood, born December 11 in Peninsula Hospital. Patti and Woody also have two older children Jeff and Sherrice.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy welcomed their son home from the Air Force for a Christmas visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wagner took an early morning bus to Modesto on Christmas morn to spend the day with their daughter and family.

The Daly City Community Chorus wound up its round of holiday appearances with a party for the members and their families and friends. Mrs. Shirley Spence was party chairman and she was assisted by Joe Deviche and Sam Silverman.

Special presentations were made to Mrs. Janet Holden, accompanist and to director Dennis Desjardens and Dick Neves sang for the guests.

Happy New Year everyone, I'll be writing for you again in 1968.

D.C. Girl Burned

A 17-year-old Daly City girl, preparing for a high school play, was seriously injured last Wednesday when gunpowder she was experimenting with exploded in her face.

Lorraine Sudduth, of 1295 South Mayfair Avenue, said she was attempting to ignite the gunpowder in "small puffs" for a scene in Macbeth scheduled to be staged at Westmoor High School in the near future. "But the wind kept blowing it away. In a final attempt to create the illusionary puff needed for the act, the young girl dumped almost an ounce of the highly explosive powder onto an open flame.

The resulting explosion shattered two plate glass windows on the front porch of the home, knocked out kitchen windows next door at 1293 South Mayfair, and rattled windows throughout the neighborhood.

Lorraine said her dramatics teacher, Kenneth Brown, had given her the powder for the experiment and cautioned against excessive use of the explosive. The victim was rushed to Mary's Help Hospital for treatment of a severely lacerated hand and burns of the face.
